

Material and Program Fee Agreement

The payment agreement is made by the library and the patron.

Payment: The patron must pay for the material fees or program fee in accordance with the libraries specified due date and amount unless arrangements are made with a member of the library staff. Full payment for program fees must be paid on or before the due date. If the patron has registered and the library has not received full payment by the specified due date their spot for the activity will be cancelled. If a patron does not contact the library notifying a staff member that they are unable to attend an activity they have paid for, the fee will not be refunded by the library unless an agreement is made prior to the event.
